Contents

Lorenz Rahmstorf, Gojko Barjamovic, Nicola Ialongo
Understanding technologies of early trade in a comparative perspective 1

Part I: Weights and Merchants

Carsten Jahnke
Trade in different worlds. Trade between Western Europe and Novgorod from the end of the Viking Age to the time of the medieval Hanseatic League 13

Natascha Mehler, Mark Gardiner
Coinless exchange and foreign merchants in medieval Iceland (AD 900-1600) 35

Gojko Barjamovic
Technologies of trade in Western Asia in the Middle Bronze Age 55

Felix Rösch
The technology of medieval maritime trade. An archaeological perspective on northern Germany and beyond 69

Elizabeth Lambourn
Trade and containerisation. Perspectives from the medieval Indian Ocean world 99

Anthony Harding
The movement of commodities in Bronze Age Europe 127

Rodney Ast
Marcus Laelius Cosmus. Italian merchants and Roman trade at Berenike under the Julio-Claudian emperors 141

Claude Mordant, Rebecca Peake, Mafalda Roscio
Weighing equipment in Late Bronze Age graves in the Seine and Yonne valleys 159

Piotr Steinkeller
International trade in Greater Mesopotamia during late Pre-Sargonic times. The case of Ebla as illustrated by her participation in the Euphratean timber trade 173

Part II: Weights and Money

François R. Velde
A functional approach to money in the ancient world 199

Georg Christ
Weights, measures, monies: Venetian trade in Mamluk Alexandria within an imperial framework 207

Sibel Kusimba, Chapurukha M. Kusimba
Cowries and blood. Money, value, and relationships in precolonial East Africa 225

Christoph Kilger
What Viking merchants had in mind. Exploring Islamic weight standards and weighing practices within early medieval trading networks 245

Clive Stannard
Small change in Campania from the fourth to the first century BC, and the newly discovered Second Punic War Roman mint of Minturnae 261

Alain Bresson
Metal-object currency before coinage: China and the West 289

Gareth Dale
The infinite silver of Xenophon. Money and growth in Classical Athens 305

Julien Zurbach
Metal money before coinage in the Aegean, ca. 1400-600 BC 317

Jan Gerrit Dercksen
Money in the Old Assyrian period 331

Author Guidelines 361